Kelly Clement, ESQ.
Howrey & Simon
1299 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, D.C. 20004

Dear Mr. Clement:

Your order for transcripts from the August 19, 1999 deposition of Susan A. Crawford, and the August 31, 1999 deposition of Devon Howe, both taken in the case of U.S. v. Dentsply International, Inc., is now ready.

However, I was mistaken yesterday, in stating that the September 2 deposition of Micheal Golden was ready. In fact, it is due out of production by COB today. For each of the other Dentsply depositions which the Antitrust Division has contracted Heritage for, the delivery time has been standardized to 10 Business Days for each.

As your order stands today, the cost for the Crawford and Howe depositions is : $ 803.00, and your transcripts for those will be ready this afternoon. I will notify you via fax when the deposition of Mr. Golden is available, and what the respective cost is.

If you have any questions, or if I can be of further assistance, please feel free to call me at (202) 628-4888.

Sincerely,

John Van Winkle
Contracts Administration Manager

DENTSPLY INTERNATIONAL INC.,

Civil Action No. 99-CV-255

DECLARATION OF DAVID W. NICHOLS IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT
DENTSPLY INTERNATIONAL INC.'S BILL OF COSTS

1. My name is David W. Nichols. I am over the age of eighteen and competent to give testimony. The information set forth below is based on my own personal knowledge.
2. I am currently employed at the law firm Latham & Watkins LLP in Washington, D.C. as a Litigation Analyst. As Litigation Analyst for the Antitrust Department, I manage and oversee all paralegal responsibilities for several complex litigation cases, including the hiring of copy vendors. One of the cases that I currently manage is the Dentsply International Inc. ("Dentsply") litigation. I have held that position since July 2005.
3. I have worked as a paralegal since January 1994. Since that time, I have retained multiple copy vendors to assist me with copying documents for case filings.

4. On May 3, 2000, Dentsply filed its motion for summary judgment in the above-captioned case. In connection with this motion, Dentsply filed a supporting appendix that consisted of 2051 pages. In accordance with the Local Rules of this Court, Dentsply filed two copies of the motion and appendix with the Court and served one copy on counsel for the plaintiffs. The total number of pages for three copies of the appendix was 6153.
5. In May 2000, I was not yet employed by Howrey Simon Arnold & White, Dentsply's then counsel responsible for filing the motion for summary judgment. However, I was employed by Chadbourne & Parke in Washington, D.C. as a Senior Paralegal, and had responsibility for retaining vendors to assist me with court filings and associated copying and printing jobs. I therefore have knowledge of the standard rates for copy jobs of this nature during this time period.
6. Based on my experience and knowledge, I estimate that Dentsply's copy vendor would have charged Dentsply approximately 15 cents per page copied. Therefore, Dentsply paid approximately $922.95 for three copies of the appendix. This figure does not include the cost of binding the documents.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on October 27, 2005 in Washington, D.C.

DAVID W. NICHOLS
